Hello FCC Families,
Happy July and officially into summer I can't believe it's here already! Just a few friendly reminders as we head into the summer months Please be sure to communicate with your FCC providers regarding any days your child will be absent due to summer vacations. Also, take a moment to stay updated on your provider's own summer vacation schedule. As the weather continues to get warmer, please remember to pack the essentials for outdoor bathing suit, sunscreen, water shoes, a change of clothes, and any other items your child may need to stay comfortable while enjoying the outdoors.

Wishing everyone a safe and happy Fourth of July!

Thank you,
Cyrena Spafford
Director of Family Childcare

Closures and Upcoming Events

July 3rd

Please make sure you check with your provider on any upcoming closures they may have!

Hyacinth's house is enjoying a fun day in the sun, making big splashes while playing in the water on a hot summer day outside.

Community happenings in July

- Marblehead : The Marblehead Children's Festival is taking place on July 4, 2026, from 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM at the Jeremiah Lee Mansion. It features family-friendly crafts, games, and entertainment as part of the milestone 60th Annual Marblehead Festival of Arts.
- Gloucester: is hosting a free harborside concert, annual Horribles Parade and fireworks display over the harbor to celebrate Independence Day. The parade starts at 6pm, with a concert at 7 and fireworks at 9:30.
- Salem: Head to the Salem Common Playground to decorate bikes, scooters, or strollers. The parade circles the Common interior, followed by a kid-friendly bike rodeo and safety class nearby
- Peabody: Peabody Free Days at the Children's Museum: Peabody residents can enjoy completely free admission to the North Shore Children's Museum on all Saturdays and Sundays in July.
